Brief History Overview

What is a Donor-Advised Fund?

- According to IRC Section 4966:
 - i. a fund (account);
 - ii. separately identified by reference to contributions of one or more donors
 - iii. owned and controlled by a public charity (the “sponsoring organization”); and
 - iv. with respect to which a donor (or any person appointed by the donor) has, or reasonably expects to have, advisory privileges with respect to the distribution or investment of amount held in the fund or account by reason of that person’s status as a donor.

- Sponsoring organizations, e.g. community foundations
- Fund Advisors; successor advisors
- Grant recommendations
- Qualified charities
- Grants

Other Type of Funds

Offered by Community Foundations only:

- Field of Interest
- Designated
- Agency Endowments

Offered by Community Foundations and other qualified sponsoring organizations:

- Scholarship
- Unrestricted
- Disaster Relief and Hardship

Why Donors Use DAFs

- EASE!!! Convenient philanthropic checkbook
- Income tax charitable deduction
- Ability to control the timing of charitable contributions
- Ability to advise (recommend) gifts
- No administrative responsibilities
- Grants can remain anonymous
- Complex gifts accepted
- Generational planning

How to Approach Donors

- Problem solve on complex gift scenarios
- If gift acceptance policy is too narrow to accept complex gifts, work with an organization that offers DAFs, e.g. Greater Washington Community Foundation
- Recognize that your organization is qualified as a public charity
- Talk about gifts at life events
- DAFs as part of a bigger gift plan
